

FOURTH SUNDAY AFTER EPIPHANY JANUARY 29, 2012

In Deuteronomy God promises to raise up a prophet like Moses, who will speak for God; in Psalm 111 God shows the people the power of God's works. For the church these are ways of pointing to the unique authority people sensed in Jesus' actions and words. We encounter that authority in God's word, around which we gather, the word that trumps any lesser spirit that would claim power over us, freeing us to follow Jesus.

WELCOME

Welcome visitors. We welcome people from all walks of life and in all places in the journey of faith and life. Whether you're a lifelong Lutheran, a former something else, or a seeker and questioner looking for more to life and a place to explore, we're glad you are here. Please fill out the Worship Attendance and Visitor Information form included with this bulletin. You may place it in the offering plate, or hand it to an usher or minister. We will only contact you in the ways you indicate. Thank you.

Please silence your cell phones as you prepare for worship.

Childcare is available for children five years old and under from 9:45 A.M. through 12:15 P.M. Please ask an usher to guide you to the Nursery.

Restrooms are located in the hallway through the double doors to the left of the pulpit.

First English has been a Reconciling in Christ congregation since 1989. We affirm God's love for people of all sexual orientations and gender identities. We openly encourage all of our members to participate fully in the life of the church.

FIRST READING

Deuteronomy 18:15–20

<sup>15</sup>The LORD your God will raise up for you a prophet like me from among your own people; you shall heed such a prophet. <sup>16</sup>This is what you requested of the LORD your God at Horeb on the day of the assembly when you said: “If I hear the voice of the LORD my God any more, or ever again see this great fire, I will die.” <sup>17</sup>Then the LORD replied to me: “They are right in what they have said. <sup>18</sup>I will raise up for them a prophet like you from among their own people; I will put my words in the mouth of the prophet, who shall speak to them everything that I command. <sup>19</sup>Anyone who does not heed the words that the prophet shall speak in my name, I myself will hold accountable. <sup>20</sup>But any prophet who speaks in the name of other gods, or who presumes to speak in my name a word that I have not commanded the prophet to speak — that prophet shall die.”

The Word of the Lord. Thanks be to God.

PSALM Psalm 111

The assembly sings the verses in bold.

<sup>1</sup>Hallelujah! I will give thanks to the LORD with <sup>1</sup>my whole heart,

pondered by all who de- <sup>1</sup>light in them.

<sup>3</sup>Majesty and splendor <sup>1</sup>mark your deeds,

<sup>4</sup>You cause your wonders to <sup>1</sup>be remembered;
you are gracious and full <sup>1</sup>of compassion.

<sup>5</sup>You give food to <sup>1</sup>those who fear you,
remembering forev- <sup>1</sup>er your covenant.

<sup>6</sup>You have shown your people the power <sup>1</sup>of your works

<sup>7</sup>The works of your hands are faithful- <sup>1</sup>ness and justice;
all of your pre- <sup>1</sup>cepts are sure.

<sup>8</sup>They stand fast forev- <sup>1</sup>er and ever,
because they are done in <sup>1</sup>truth and equity.

<sup>9</sup>You sent redemption to your people
and commanded your cove- <sup>1</sup>nant forever;
holy and awesome <sup>1</sup>is your name.

<sup>10</sup>The fear of the LORD is the begin- <sup>1</sup>ning of wisdom;
all who practice this have a good understanding.

SECOND READING

1 Corinthians 8:1–13

Now concerning food sacrificed to idols: we know that “all of us possess knowledge.” Knowledge puffs up, but love builds up. <sup>2</sup>Anyone who claims to know something does not yet have the necessary knowledge; <sup>3</sup>but anyone who loves God is known by him.

<sup>4</sup>Hence, as to the eating of food offered to idols, we know that “no idol in the world really exists,” and that “there is no God but one.” <sup>5</sup>Indeed, even though there may be so-called gods in heaven or on earth — as in fact there are many gods and many lords — <sup>6</sup>yet for us there is one God, the Father, from whom are all things and for whom we exist, and one Lord, Jesus Christ, through whom are all things and through whom we exist.

<sup>7</sup>It is not everyone, however, who has this knowledge. Since some have become so accustomed to idols until now, they still think of the food they eat as food offered to an idol; and their conscience, being weak, is defiled. <sup>8</sup>Food will not bring us close to God. We are no worse off if we do not eat, and no better off if we do. <sup>9</sup>But take care that this liberty of yours does not somehow become a stumbling block to the weak. <sup>10</sup>For if others see you, who possess knowledge, eating in the temple of an idol, might they not, since their conscience is weak, be encouraged to the point of eating food sacrificed to idols? <sup>11</sup>So by your knowledge those weak believers for whom Christ died are destroyed. <sup>12</sup>But when you thus sin against members of your family, and wound their conscience when it is weak, you sin against Christ. <sup>13</sup>Therefore, if food is a cause of their falling, I will never eat meat, so that I may not cause one of them to fall.

The Word of the Lord. Thanks be to God.

The assembly stands to welcome the Gospel.

GOSPEL

Acclamation

Hal-le, hal - le, hal - le - lu - jah. Hal - le, hal - le, hal -
- le - lu - jah. Hal - le, hal - le, hal - le - lu - jah. Hal - le - lu - jah. Hal - le - lu - jah.

The Holy Gospel according to Mark.

Glory to you, O Lord.

Mark 1: 21–28

<sup>21</sup>They went to Capernaum; and when the sabbath came, he entered the synagogue and taught. <sup>22</sup>They were astounded at his teaching, for he taught them as one having authority, and not as the scribes. <sup>23</sup>Just then there was in their synagogue a man with an unclean spirit, <sup>24</sup>and he cried out, “What have you to do with us, Jesus of Nazareth? Have you come to destroy us? I know who you are, the Holy One of God.” <sup>25</sup>But Jesus rebuked him, saying, “Be silent, and come out of him!” <sup>26</sup>And the unclean spirit, convulsing him and crying with a loud voice, came out of him. <sup>27</sup>They were all amazed, and they kept on asking one another, “What is this? A new teaching — with authority! He commands even the unclean spirits, and they obey him.” <sup>28</sup>At once his fame began to spread throughout the surrounding region of Galilee.

We look with hope for his coming.

Come, Lord Jesus.

Holy God, we long for your Spirit.

Come among us. Bless this meal. May your Word take flesh in us.

Awaken your people. Fill us with your light. Bring the gift of peace on earth.

All praise and glory are yours, Holy One of Israel,

Word of God incarnate, Power of the Most High,

one God, now and forever.

Amen.
