We rest in faith

What is faith? The text from Hebrews 11:1 defines it in this way: “Now faith is the assurance of things hoped for, the conviction of things not seen.” On Wednesdays of Lent we will focus on the book of Hebrews, especially the eleventh chapter. The first four weeks provide a journey through the faith of figures in the Hebrew Scriptures: Noah (& Naamah), Abraham & Sarah, Moses & Zipporah, and the ancient Israelites. The fifth week brings us to Jesus, “the perfecter of our faith,” and his path to the cross.

Week of Lent 1: The Faith of Noah

By faith, Noah built the ark, gathered animals, watched the waters rise, and received the rainbow promise. How do we have faith in things not yet seen?

Week of Lent 2: The Faith of Abraham

By faith, Abraham journeyed to an unknown land, trusted in God’s promise of a son, and offered up that son as a sacrifice. When faith means taking a risk, how do we respond?

Week of Lent 3: The Faith of Moses

By faith, Moses chose the hard path to follow God’s call. How does faith affect the choices we make?

Week of Lent 4: The Faith of the ancient Israelites

By faith, generations of Israelites wandered the wilderness, entered the promised land, heard the prophets, and suffered persecution. Amid life’s joys and difficulties, how do we persevere in faith?

Week of Lent 5: Jesus, the Perfecter of Our Faith

Enduring the cross, Jesus became “the pioneer and perfecter of our faith.” How does the way of the cross define our faith?
