Welcome

Welcome to First English Lutheran Church (FELC). We are a congregation of the Southwestern Texas Synod of the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America (ELCA). We are a community in and of the city where all are welcome in every aspect of congregational life. Following the example of Christ, we welcome you exactly as you are.

FELC is committed to the work of racial equity, justice, and advocating for marginalized groups. We welcome people in all places on the journey of faith and life. We celebrate differences in age, appearance, economic status, ethnic origin, nationality, race, family configuration, marital or relationship status, political leaning, religious background, and those who are differently abled physically or mentally. Since 1989, FELC has openly welcomed persons of all sexual orientations and gender identities and expressions to full participation in the church and society. For more on our life and witness, visit www.felcaustin.org.

Accessibility

All Gender Restrooms, with infant changing tables, are located in the hallway off of the sanctuary (main worship area) near the fellowship hall. Hearing assistance devices are available for the sanctuary, with two options: an earpiece, or a hearing loop for those who use hearing aids; please connect with the minister for a hearing assistance device. Seat cushions, for use on the wood pews and chairs are available in the narthex (main entrance area).

Liturgy

Worship and adoration of God is at the heart of life for disciples of Jesus. It is in worship that we encounter God, express our belonging, define our identity, and are formed and transformed as the people of God. Liturgy is a Greek work translated “the work of the people of God” as we gather. FELC holds the ordered framework in the tradition of the whole church, including from early centuries. We gather, we receive the Word of God, we give thanks and are nourished by Christ’s presence in bread, wine, and blessing, and we are sent to be active images of divine love. The Meal is known by many names: the Lord’s Supper, Holy Communion, the Mass, the Sacrament, the Eucharist. There are various formats and styles to this framework. During this summer season and Sabbath Ministry Pause, the worship service is thematic, and does not include the regular, fuller liturgical experience. This Time after Pentecost Day opens opportunities to grow in the Spirit of God. During the eight-week Sabbath Ministry Pause, regular commemorations, celebrations, and special occasions will be transferred to August and September.

SABBATH MINISTRY PAUSE
Tending What Has Been Entrusted
May 31 – July 26 – a worship & sermon series

Week One Theme:
Something must die for something new to live

May 31 – July 25 First English Lutheran Church will be in a time of Sabbath Ministry Pause. During the eight weeks, the congregation will pause its ministry activities of learning, witness, service, and support. We will continue in weekly worship and turn our shared focus toward reflection and discernment of future mission and the faithful stewarding of our resources. As we begin our 91st year of ministry in Austin, we seek to be intentional about shaping the next season of God's mission in this place. If you are newly receiving this information, we welcome you to participate in this journey. To learn more, contact Pastor Katie Rode, pastor@felcaustin.org.

Gathering in Music

We stand, as able.

In our call and response, everyone is invited to pray aloud the text in bold print.

Gathering in Community

The ancient prophet Isaiah proclaims: If you call the Sabbath a delight, and the holy day of the Lord honorable, then you shall take delight in the Lord. (Isaiah 58: vv.13b, 14a)

God, we call upon your presence in creation and in each person.

Open our lips,

and our mouths will proclaim your praise.

Satisfy us in the morning with your steadfast love,

as we live abundantly all our days.

We give you glory, our light and our life.

We come to worship and praise.

The songs are found in Evangelical Lutheran Worship (ELW), the red worship book in the pew.

Gathering in Song

O Day of Rest and Gladness* | ELW 521

Text: Christopher Wordsworth, 1807-1885, alt.

Music: German melody, 18th cent.

Gathering in Prayer

God dwells with you. And also with you.

God of all grace, you give us minds to know you, hearts to love you, and voices to praise you. Activate your Spirit in us, that we may celebrate your goodness, and worship you in faith, hope, and true peace; we pray in the name of Jesus Christ, our Savior and Lord, who lives and reigns, now and forever. Amen.

Sharing Christ's Peace

May the peace of Christ be with you all. And also with you.

We greet each other with gentle signs of reconciliation, peace, and love. This exchange of peace within the gathered community is an ancient Christian practice that builds and renews relationships.

Following sharing the Peace, we sit, as able.

Welcome to Community

Song

Come and Fill Our Hearts

Text/Music: Psalm 136:1; Jacques Berthier, 1923-1994, Taizé, France

Sung repeatedly in any language.

The musical score is written for voice and piano. It consists of three systems of music. Each system has a vocal line in the treble clef and a piano accompaniment in the bass clef. The key signature is one sharp (F#) and the time signature is common time (C). The lyrics are in Latin and English. The first system contains the first line of the song. The second system contains the second line. The third system contains the final line, 'al-le-lu-ia.', which is repeated twice.

Con - fi - te - mi - ni Do - mi - no quo - ni -
Come and fill our hearts with your peace. You a - lone, O
Llé na - nos Se - ñor, de tu paz, por - que só - lo am bo - nus. Con - fi - te - mi - ni Do - mi - no, Lord, are ho - ly. Come and fill our hearts with your peace, e - res san - to. Llé - na - nos Se - ñor, de tu paz, al - le - lu - - - ia.

A Time of Wisdom & Wonder

Children and adults are invited to gather at the baptismal font.

Jesus answered them, “The hour has come for the Son of Man to be glorified. Very truly, I tell you, unless a grain of wheat falls into the earth and dies, it remains just a single grain, but if it dies it bears much fruit. Those who love their life lose it, and those who hate their life in this world will keep it for eternal life. Whoever serves me must follow me, and where I am, there will my servant be also. Whoever serves me, the Father will honor. “Now my soul is troubled. And what should I say: ‘Father, save me from this hour’? No, it is for this reason that I have come to this hour. Father, glorify your name.” Then a voice came from heaven, “I have glorified it, and I will glorify it again.”

Holy Wisdom. Holy Word. Thanks be to God.

Lord, Be Glorified | ELW 744

Music: BE GLORIFIED

Text: Bob Kilpatrick, b. 1952

Offering Our Lives

Offering Music

Offering Our Breathing & Prayer

Week One Focus Words: grounded, honest

We pray to & listen for God: for the earth; the nations; the poor, ill, oppressed, lonely, unhoused, homebound, imprisoned, bereaved, & joyful; for justice & mercy; for the communities where we live, worship, play, & work; for ourselves, our loved ones, & our enemies; & for the sorrows, thanksgivings, & hopes we bring today.

For additional prayers, please see ELW pages 72-87 in the front of the red worship book.

A prayer list is found on page 10 of this worship bulletin.

We stand, as able.

Celebrating Christ's Meal in Thanksgiving

The Lord is with you. And also with you.

Lift up your hearts. We lift them to the Lord.

Let us give thanks to the Lord our God. It is right to give God thanks and praise!

In the night in which he was given to death, our Lord Jesus took bread, and gave thanks; broke it, and gave it to his disciples, saying: Take and eat; this is my body, given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me.

Again, after supper, he took the cup, gave thanks, and gave it for all to drink, saying: This cup is the new covenant in my blood, shed for you and for all people for the forgiveness of sin. Do this for the remembrance of me.

We call on the gift of your holy Spirit: in our gathering; within this meal; among all people; throughout the world.

Praise, blessing, and thanks to you, God of all grace, through Christ Jesus, † by your life-changing Spirit, now and forever. Amen.

The Lord's Prayer

Gathered into one by that same Spirit, let us pray as Jesus taught:

Our Father in heaven, hallowed be your name,
your kingdom come, your will be done, on earth as in heaven.

Give us today our daily bread.

Forgive us our sins as we forgive those who sin against us.

Save us from the time of trial and deliver us from evil.

For the kingdom, the power, and the glory are yours,
now and forever. Amen.

Breaking the Bread

We break and share this bread to be the body of Christ.

We will love one another as Christ loves us.

Lamb of God, you take away the sin of the world.

Have mercy on us and grant us peace. Amen.

We sit, as able.

Welcome to Communion & Blessing

This is Christ's table. Christ is the host. All are welcome. We encourage you to participate in ways that are meaningful for you.

For those participating onsite, come to the minister by the center aisle. Receive a gluten-free wafer (bread) in your hand and eat. Take a small cup of wine from the cart and drink. White grape juice in the tray is alcohol-free. Place the used wine/juice cup in the basket on the cart. If you desire a blessing and not to receive bread or wine, a minister will offer a prayer. Return to your seat by a side aisle. We join in prayer and meditation. If you desire communion or a blessing at your place, the minister will come to you.

Communion Music

We stand, as able.

Sending in Prayer

God of all grace, thank you for gifting us with your compassion, vulnerability, and forgiveness. We've received and shared your holy Word of wisdom and been nurtured in the Spirit. May the joy of this meal and blessing so work in us, that, as we leave this gathering, the fruits of your love will show forth in our lives. Amen.

Lord of All Hopefulness | ELW 765

Music: SLANE, Irish traditional

Text: Jan Struther, 1901-1953

Sending in Blessing

In work and worship, play and rest, God is with us.

Gathered and scattered, settled and wandering, God is with us.

May we go into the world filled with the Spirit of God:

who made us, † who loves us, and who empowers us, now and forever. Amen.

Sending in Mission

As we continue our spiritual practice of pause, we go to bless the world with God's love.

Thanks be to God!
