Welcome

Welcome to First English Lutheran Church (FELC). We are a congregation of the Southwestern Texas Synod of the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America (ELCA). We are a community in and of the city where all are welcome in every aspect of congregational life. Following the example of Christ, we welcome you exactly as you are.

FELC is committed to the work of racial equity, justice, and advocating for marginalized groups. We welcome people in all places on the journey of faith and life. We celebrate differences in age, appearance, economic status, ethnic origin, nationality, race, family configuration, marital or relationship status, political leaning, religious background, and those who are differently-abled physically or mentally. Since 1989, FELC has openly welcomed persons of all sexual orientations and gender identities and expressions to full participation in the church and society. To learn more, visit www.felcaustin.org.

Accessibility

All Gender Restrooms, with infant changing tables, are located in the hallway off of the sanctuary (main worship area) near the fellowship hall. Hearing assistance devices are available for use in the sanctuary, with two options: an earpiece, or a hearing loop for those who use hearing aids. Connect with the minister for a hearing assistance device. Seat cushions, for use on the wood pews are available in the narthex (main entrance area).

Liturgy

Worship and adoration of God is at the heart of life for disciples of Jesus. It is in worship that we encounter God, express our belonging, define our identity, and are formed as the people of God. Liturgy is a Greek work translated “the work of the people of God” as we gather. FELC holds the Word and Eucharist ordered framework in the tradition of the whole church, including from early centuries. We gather, we receive the Word of God, we give thanks and are nourished by Christ’s presence in bread, wine, and blessing, and we are sent to be active images of divine love. The Meal is known by many names: the Lord’s Supper, Holy Communion, the Mass, the Sacrament, the Eucharist. We celebrate at Christ’s table, and all are welcome to receive holy communion no matter your background, faith practice, or curiosity. To learn more about Holy Baptism and discipleship with Jesus, please connect with the pastor. We utilize various biblical and contemporary images and names for God, Jesus, and humanity. The church season after Easter and Pentecost Days is half of the calendar year. Sometimes called “Ordinary Time” because of the numbering (ordinals) of the Sunday, it includes summer and fall with the primary growth color of green.

In the Hebrew Scripture reading this Sunday, God uses the Gentile ruler Cyrus to accomplish divine purposes. In the gospel story, when the Pharisees try to trap Jesus, he tells them to give the emperor what belongs to the emperor and to God what belongs to God. We are reminded that our ultimate allegiance is to God rather than to any earthly authority. Created in the image of God, we offer our entire selves for the sake of the whole world. We gather to do the life-giving work of building community and care so that we can faithfully engage with neighbors near and far. – Cantor Bryan Rust

*In our call and response, everyone is invited to pray aloud the text in bold print.
We remain seated and join in the gathering music.*

✠ WORD ✠

First Reading

Isaiah 45:1-7

¹ Thus says the Lord to his anointed, to Cyrus, whose right hand I have grasped to subdue nations before him and to strip kings of their robes, to open doors before him—and the gates shall not be closed: ² I will go before you and level the mountains; I will break in pieces the doors of bronze and cut through the bars of iron; ³ I will give you the treasures of darkness and riches hidden in secret places, so that you may know that it is I, the Lord, the God of Israel, who call you by your name. ⁴ For the sake of my servant Jacob and Israel my chosen, I call you by your name; I give you a title, though you do not know me. ⁵ I am the Lord, and there is no other; besides me there is no god. I arm you, though you do not know me, ⁶ so that they may know, from the rising of the sun and from the west, that there is no one besides me; I am the Lord, and there is no other. ⁷ I form light and create darkness, I make weal and create woe; I the Lord do all these things.

The Word of the Lord. Thanks be to God.

We remain seated to chant the psalm responsively.

Response

Time of Wisdom & Wonder

Children and adults are invited to gather at the baptismal font.

Second Reading

1 Thessalonians 1:1-10

¹ Paul, Silvanus, and Timothy, To the church of the Thessalonians in God and in the Lord Jesus Christ: Grace to you and peace. ² We always give thanks to God for all of you and mention you in our prayers, constantly ³ remembering before God and your work of faith and labor of love and steadfastness of hope in our Lord Jesus Christ.

⁴ For we know, dearly beloved by God, that God has chosen you, ⁵ because our message of the gospel came to you not in word only but also in power and in the Holy Spirit and with full conviction; just as you know what kind of persons we proved to be among you for your sake. ⁶ And you became imitators of us and of the Lord, for in spite of persecution you received the word with joy from the Holy Spirit, ⁷ so that you became an example to all the believers in Macedonia and in Achaia. ⁸ For the word of the Lord has sounded forth from you not only in Macedonia and Achaia but in every place your faith in God has become known, so that we have no need to speak about it. ⁹ For they report about us what kind of welcome we had among you and how you turned to God from idols to serve a living and true God ¹⁰ and to wait for God's Son from heaven, whom God raised from the dead—Jesus, who rescues us.

The word of the Lord. Thanks be to God.

We stand to welcome Christ in the gospel.

Holy Gospel

Mateo 22:15-22

¹⁵ The Pharisees went and plotted to entrap [Jesus] in what he said. ¹⁶ So they sent their disciples to him, along with the Herodians, saying, “Teacher, we know that you are sincere, and teach the way of God in accordance with truth, and show deference to no one, for you do not regard people with partiality. ¹⁷ Tell us, then, what you think. Is it lawful to pay taxes to Caesar or not?” ¹⁸ But Jesus, aware of their malice, said, “Why are you putting me to the test, you hypocrites? ¹⁹ Show me the coin used for the tax.” And they brought him a denarius. ²⁰ Then he said to them, “Whose head is this and whose title?” ²¹ They answered, “Caesar’s.” Then he said to them, “Give therefore to Caesar the things that are Caesar’s and to God the things that are God’s.” ²² When they heard this, they were amazed, and they left him and went away.

Turn our hearts toward those who hunger in any way, that all may know your care.

Great Thanksgiving

El Señor sea con ustedes.

Y también contigo.

Elevemos los corazones.

Al Señor los elevamos.

Demos gracias al Señor nuestro Dios.

Es justo darle gracias y alabanza.

The Lord be with you.

And also with you.

Lift up your hearts.

We lift them to the Lord.

Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

It is right to give Him thanks and praise.

En verdad es digno, justo y saludable que en todo tiempo y en todo lugar te demos gracias y alabanza, todopoderoso y misericordioso Dios, por nuestro Salvador Jesucristo; quien en el primer día de la semana triunfó sobre la muerte y la tumba, y por su gloriosa resurrección nos abrió el camino de la vida eterna. Así pues, con los coros de los ángeles, con la iglesia en la tierra y las huestes en el cielo, alabamos tu nombre y nos unimos a su himno eterno:

It is indeed right, our duty and our joy, that we should at all times and in all places give thanks and praise to you, almighty and merciful God, through our Savior Jesus Christ; who on this day overcame death and the grave, and by his glorious resurrection opened to us the way of everlasting life. And so, with all the choirs of angels, with the church on earth and the hosts of heaven, we praise your name and join their unending hymn:

Thanksgiving at the Table

You are indeed holy, gracious God . . . do this for the remembrance of me.

Let us proclaim together the mystery of faith:

Christ has died. Christ is risen. Christ will come again!

Awaken in us and in this meal your life-giving Spirit, whose breath revives us for abundant life, and whose fire rouses us to love. Come, Holy Spirit.

Through Christ, with Christ, $\mp$ in Christ, in the unity and power of the Holy Spirit, all honor and glory is yours, most gracious God, in the church and in the world, now and forever. Amen.

Lord's Prayer

Señor, acuérdate de nosotros en tu reino y enséñanos a orar:
(Lord, remember us in your kingdom and teach us to pray:)

Padre nuestro, que estás en el cielo, santificado sea tu nombre;
venga a nosotros tu reino; hágase tu voluntad en la tierra como en el cielo.
Danos hoy nuestro pan de cada día; perdona nuestras ofensas,
como también nosotros perdonamos a los que nos ofenden;
no nos dejes caer en la tentación, y líbranos del mal.
Porque tuyo es el reino, el poder y la gloria, ahora y por siempre. Amén.

Our Father in heaven, hallowed be your name, your kingdom come,
your will be done, on earth as in heaven.
Give us today our daily bread. Forgive us our sins as we forgive those who sin against us.
Save us from the time of trial and deliver us from evil.
For the kingdom, the power, and the glory are yours, now and forever. Amen.

Breaking the Bread

We break this bread to be the body of Christ.

We will love one another as Christ loves us.

Be seated.

HISPANIC HERITAGE MONTH

National Hispanic American Heritage Month 2026 takes place from September 15 to October 15. The starting date of September 15 honors the independence anniversaries of Costa Rica, El Salvador, Guatemala, Honduras, and Nicaragua. Mexico, Chile, and Belize also celebrate their independence days shortly after (September 16 and 18). This celebration began “Hispanic Heritage Week” under President Lyndon Johnson in 1968 and expanded to a full month under President Ronald Reagan in 1988. We give thanks for the unique histories, cultures, and ongoing contributions of all people with these ancestral roots. In our worship for September and October, we will experience language and music from these various traditions.

CHORUS AUSTIN CHAMBER ENSEMBLE: SONGS FOR THE JOURNEY SATURDAY, OCTOBER 24, 8 PM | SUNDAY, OCTOBER 25, 4 PM

ADULT FAITH FORMATION | OCTOBER 25, 9 AM

Thoughts on Martin Luther and the Reformation, led by Pastor Katie Rode and Pastor Don Wright.

REFORMATION SUNDAY | OCTOBER 25

On Reformation Sunday we celebrate the heart of faith: the gospel of Christ that makes us free to live God's love fully. By the end of the 17th century, many Lutheran churches celebrated a festival commemorating All Hallows Eve, October 31, 1517, when Martin Luther posted his Ninety-five Theses in Wittenberg, Germany. These were a summary of abuses in the church of his time and his call to action. The Holy Spirit continues to reform the whole church in this age and place in mission. The church color associated with the Holy Spirit is red, and we invite you to wear some red on October 25.

ALL SAINTS' SUNDAY & OFFRENDIA | NOVEMBER 1

We celebrate the Feast of All Saints' - a time to remember and give thanks for the saints in our lives and in the world. As part of the observance we will read the names of those from FELC who have died since the last All Saints' Sunday. We invite and encourage everyone to bring photos, drawings, and/or mementos to place on an Altar of Remembrance (Offrendia) in the Chapel of the Saints, and to write the names of anyone who has died in the past year in the Book of the Dead. The sacred space of remembrance will remain in the Chapel through November. If you would like the name/s of anyone who has died read in the liturgy on November 1, please email the church office by Tuesday, October 27.

DAYLIGHT SAVINGS TIME ENDS AT 2 AM ON NOVEMBER. 1.

FELC FALL FESTIVAL | NOVEMBER 1

All are welcome to celebrate together, starting at 5 pm with Austin Polka Band and KarliHaus brew, followed by Brats, Schnitzel and your favorite dish.
